Course title

Anthropology Teaching Workshop

Topics and course structure

The workshop aims to introduce participants to the teaching of cultural anthropology in schools. Through three workshop proposals, students will experience an interactive and collaborative model of learning the contents of the discipline. The first session will focus on the logical principle of induction as a typical method of ethnographic research; the second on the field of application of anthropological knowledge; and the third on the presentation of case studies, understood as detailed analyses of concrete situations in real contexts.

Objectives

The workshop aims to allow participants to experiment with some workshop and collaborative methods to promote learning of the subject in a school context.

Methodologies

Face-to-face workshop lessons

Online and offline teaching materials

Further reading materials will be made available on the course's e-learning platform.
