UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Ethics and Professional Deontology

2021-3-I0303D017-I0303D072M

Aims

Student skills: to describe ethics and deontology rules specific of the profession

Contents

The goal of the course is to provide the student with the cultural basis for the acquisition of full professional competence, according to regulation of the specific professional title: (DM 745/94)

Detailed program

Definitions of Ethics and Deontology and their practical applications. Ethics and technology: the new need of a technological world: the responsibility principle; Communication and Informed consent; Ethics dilemmas and limit-cases; professional identity and personal world: contrasts, relationships, problems

Prerequisites

Teaching form

Lectures

Textbook and teaching resource

Raffaele Mantegazza

Narrare la fine

Castelvecchi 2018

Semester

Second semester

Assessment method

Oral test on bibliography and on a report provided by the student in advance:

The evaluation will be based on:

Correctness of the answers

relevance of the answers to the questions

completeness of replies

any autonomous additions by the student

Office hours

By appointment required by mail