Course title

English Language Teaching

Topics and course structure

During the 10 meetings, lasting 4 hours each, the students learn about methodologies, strategies and tools for more active teaching the English language to very young learners, i.e. children of the age group 4 - 7 years and, therefore, nursery school and the first two years of primary school.

These are the topics presented and covered in the workshop:

1. Listening, speaking and reading (through recognition)
2. lesson planning, or the importance of routine
3. Warm up, drilling activities, main activities, chilling out
4. Songs, chants, rhymes
5. Visual aids (flashcards, miniflashcards, real objects)
6. Games and T.P.R. activities (Total Physical response
7. Storytelling
8. eTwinning
9. Evaluation

Objectives

This workshop, through constant and lively attendance, has the aim to make students understand that active teaching, attentive to the needs, interests and abilities of children, turns learning the English language into an experience that is not only pleasant and entertaining, but also natural.

A further and equally important objective of the workshop, carried out entirely in English, is to strengthen and improve the students' mastery of the language.

Methodologies

Students always work in small groups, where they create materials and plan activities and lessons with the constant supervision of the teacher. All the activities are promptly shared with the whole class and together, the strengths and areas for improvement of each work presented are observed and highlighted. the group must take the teacher's and the other students' feedback into account by making changes to their work.

Online and offline teaching materials

Texts, sites, videos, social pages, apps, etc. are recommended in order to provide useful resources both for carrying out the tasks assigned in the laboratory, but which can be drawn on once they become teachers.
