UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Principi di Trattamento delle Ferite Cutanee e delle Ustioni

1819-5-H4101D164

Aims

Wounds / burns on the face and their outcomes that require surgical treatment will be considered

Contents

The course aims to deepen knowledge on the processes of healing of skin wounds and burns, and on the patho-physiologic mechanisms involved.

Detailed program

Patho-physiology of skin burns and wound healing process, diagnostic criteria, medical treatment, the treatment of superficial and deep skin wounds with or without loss of substance, the treatment of burns.

The program also includes the presentation and discussion of clinical cases with the screening of patients intraoperative images.

Prerequisites

Medical students at 5th year and over

Teaching form

Lectures in the classroom through the use of projector.

Interested students will be able to access clinical cases present in the ward.

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

Assessment method

At the end of each lesson, students will be encouraged to set up a discussion on the elements learned with the teacher

Office hours