

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Tumori della Bocca e delle Ghiandole Salivari

1819-5-H4101D142

Aims

knowledge on the major benign and malignant tumours that affect the face, oral cavity and salivary glands.

Contents

Carcinomas of the oral cavity, melanomas and carcinomas of the face, benign tumours and carcinomas of major and minor salivary glands will be treated. The course aims to deepen the diagnostic aspects, the location decision on the choice of the surgical and restorative aspects.

Detailed program

Epidemiology, pathology and pathogenesis, diagnosis, biology, clinical staging, surgical methods of treatment of T and N, reconstructive techniques with particular reference to the use of pedicled flaps and microvascular disease staging, neoadjuvant and adjuvant treatments, the followup.

Prerequisites

Medical Students at 5th year and over

Teaching form

Lectures with the projection of slides, but also presentation and discussion of clinical cases and intraoperative projection of images of treated patients. Will be discussed and also evaluated case patients on the ward.

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

Assessment method

At the end of each lesson, students will be encouraged to set up a discussion on the elements learned with the teacher.

Office hours
