COURSE SYLLABUS

Internato in Dermatologia

1819-4-H4101D237

Aims

Provide the student with direct experience in the management of patients with dermatological problems.

Contents

The student will support the tutor during his working day.

Detailed program

On fixed day students are divided into groups of 3 or max 4 students.

Each group will be assigned every day to a specialist head of a first- or second-level surgery (i.e. general dermatology, pediatric dermatology, allergological dermatology, dermatological surgery, phototherapy, sexually transmitted diseases).

During the whole period each group will attend all surgeries so to have a complete experience in all dermatological disciplines.

As far as possible special requests of the students for a specific interest will be satisfied
