UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Salute in Africa

1819-4-H4101D229

Aims

Explain the main features of health determinants in Africa and move towards a correct approach to health promotion and health care in developing countries.Propose general information and experiences on international health cooperation.

Contents

We will cover the topics related to health in Africa and health cooperation. In the course are involved CUAMM-Doctors with Africa physicians. The issue of access to essential drugs will be treated in collaboration with Medicins Sans Frontieres

Detailed program

Didactic program:

Human development index, measles, tb, HIV, malaria, maternal and child health in developing and poorer countries. Health Care organization and Primary Health Care. Access to essential medicines

Prerequisites

4th year Medical Student and over, 3th year students in Nursing, Midwifery, Biomedical Laboratory Techniques, Medical Radiology Techniques, students in Nursing an Midwifery Sciences

Teaching form

Lectures, analysis of epidemiological data, experiences and intervention programs

Textbook and teaching resource

Papers distributed during the course

Semester

Assessment method

Interactive verification at the course conclusion

Office hours