

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Internato in Reparto di Chirurgia Odontoiatrica

1819-3-H4601D057

Aims

The

course aims to contribute to the training of students in dentistry and dental prosthesis providing the necessary knowledge of oral surgery.

Assist

students in tackling basic surgery and various problems with particular attention to complications that may arise.

Contents

The

purpose of the internship is to provide the fundamental practical bases for dealing with the various problems that the discipline proposes.

The

diagnostic and therapeutic problems of the most frequent pathological forms of surgical relevance of the oral district and the clinical case studies with long-term results are evaluated in detail.

Detailed program

Diagnostic anamnestic overview of the patient

Dental

radiology: orthopantomography and tac

Pharmacology

Principles

of oral surgery: preparation of the operative area, of the instruments, of the patient and of the operators.

Anesthesiological techniques

Basic

surgical techniques both on healthy patients and with systemic problems.

Exodontic

surgery with reference to the instrumentation needed to perform oral surgery interventions

Pre-prosthetic minor and major surgery.

Dental

and alveolar traumatology.

Legal

medical aspects in oral surgery related to the drafting of informed consent of specific surgical interest

Prerequisites

Pharmacology and Anesthesiology

Institutions

of Anatomy and Pathological Histology

Teaching form

practise

Textbook and teaching resource

MANUALE ILLUSTRATO DI CHIRURGIA ORALE DI MATTEO CHIAPASCO

Semester

annual

Assessment method

Presence and oral examination

Office hours

On appointment