

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Elementi di Diritto Romano Pubblico e Privato

1920-1-E1401A074

Learning objectives

The course aims to teach the main institutions of the Roman Law

Contents

Introduction to Roman Public and Private Law is a description of Roman constitutional Law and Roman Private Law from the birth of Rome to the death of Emperor Justinian.

Detailed program

The treatment of law in each period covers the sources of law, the criminal procedures, the development of legal science, the Magistratures and the Officials.

About the Roman private law, the attention will focus on: Law of Persons and Family Law; Law of Property and Real Estate; Law of Obligations; Succession mortis causa; Introduction to the trial.

Prerequisites

Teaching methods

Lectures

Assessment methods

Oral exam

Textbooks and Reading Materials

LORENZO FASCIONE, Storia del diritto privato romano,

Torino 2012, ed. Giappichelli
