

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Istituzioni di Diritto Pubblico - 1

1920-1-E1801M004-T1

Learning objectives

The course aims to offer basic knowledge of the national legal order, the Italian regional and local government and the EU-legal order.

The lectures focus on the organization and activity of the Italian Government and other nondomestic institutions, as the EU ones. The course aims also to analyse the legal and political framework of the relations between authorities and citizens, esp. referring to individual rights. Furthermore, it introduces to the study of the legal sources and their production mechanisms. Finally, it focuses on recent Italian constitutional developments.

Contents

The course offers basic knowledge of the national legal order, the Italian regional and local order and the EU legal system. Furthermore, it analyses the relationship between individuals and institutions – domestic and EU ones – referring to constitutional rights and their legal protection.

Finally, the lectures aim to discuss significant issues in the field of national and EU market regulation and public intervention in economy.

Detailed program

Basic Italian public law notions: the legal system, the form of state, the form of government.

Italian Public law sources.

Outline of Italian constitutional history.

Constitutional organization of the Italian Republic.

Italian Regional and local governments.

Citizens' rights and duties (according to the Italian Constitution).

International and EU relationships of the Italian Republic.

Italian Public economics law: regulation of the market and public intervention in economy.

Prerequisites

Knowledge of Italian (spoken and written) language and of contemporary history.

Teaching methods

Lectures.

Assessment methods

Written examination for attending students at the end of the lectures; oral examination in the ordinary sessions.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

P. Caretti, U. De Siervo, (ed.s), Istituzioni di Diritto Pubblico, Giappichelli Editore, last edition.

Semester

September 2019 - January 2020.

Teaching language

Italian.
