

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Istituzioni di Diritto Pubblico - 2

1920-1-E1803M004-T2

Learning objectives

The course aims at building a basic knowledge of the legal orders: the national legal order, the organization of the institutions of the local government and the European legal order.

The aim is also to introduce to the study of the legal sources and to the mechanisms of their production.

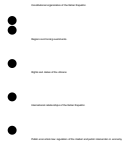

Contents

The course aims at building a basic knowledge of the legal orders: the national legal order, the organization of the institutions of the local government and the European legal order. The course is also directed to illustrate the relationship between individuals and institutions – national and European – with regard to the freedoms and the means of their protection.

The attention is also devoted to the most relevant aspects of public economics law: regulation of the market and public intervention in economy

Detailed program

- The basics of general public law: the legal system, States and governments.
- —
- —

Prerequisites

Knowledge of the legal sources of public law and the general organization of the Italian and European legal order.

Teaching methods

Frontal lecture

Assessment methods

Written examination for attending students at the end of the lectures; oral examination in the ordinary sessions

Textbooks and Reading Materials

P. Caretti – U. De Siervo, Diritto costituzionale e pubblico, Giappichelli Editore, ultima edizione.

Semester

Teaching language

Italian
