

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Economia delle Aziende Pubbliche

1920-3-E3301M146

Learning objectives

The course aims to provide the principles of business administration for the public sector.

At the end of the course, the student must demonstrate that he has acquired the fundamental principles and the typical language of the business economy referred to the public sector.

Contents

The course focuses on the study of issues related to the business economy of the public sector, namely: Business Administration, Management, Organization in the public company, The administration and control system, The planning and programming system, The management control system in public companies, The determination of costs in public companies, Quality in public administrations.

Detailed program

1. Business Administration
2. Management
3. Organization in the public company
4. The administration and control system
5. The planning and programming system

6. The management control system in public companies

7. The determination of costs in public companies

8. Quality in public administrations

Prerequisites

/

Teaching methods

Frontal lessons

Assessment methods

Oral exam on the whole program:

- Open questions in which the student's ability to argue (vote awarded up to 30/30 with honors) is tested.

There are no intermediate tests.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Paola Orlandini – Principi di economia aziendale per il settore pubblico (Giappichelli Editore)

Semester

First semester

Teaching language

Italian
