UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Locomotor System Diseases

1920-3-H4102D018

Aims

The Vertical Track has the aim of allowing students to acquire the knowledge and skills related to the clinic of the musculoskeletal system, with an integrated teaching that also includes the contributions of basic sciences and bioengineering.

Contents

see the individual learning modules

Detailed program

see the individual learning modules

Prerequisites

preparatory courses as indicated in the didactic regulation: having passed the exam of Basic Pathology and Immunology, Basic Pharmacology, Image Diagnostic, Basic Clinical Skills

Teaching form

lectures, small group activities, PBL Problem Based Learning, CBL Case Based Learning, observation and debriefing in hospital departments

Textbook and teaching resource

see what is specifically indicated in the individual modules

Semester

first term

Assessment method

Integrated examination: multiple choice + oral (clinical case, eventual presentation of rx images / photographs ... even on screen in the examination). Oral will be considered the "practical" test. The assessment is in x / 30 for multiple choice always x / 30 for oral

Office hours

by appointment with the teachers and the course coordinator (e-mail)