SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Laboratorio: Metodi Psicodinamici: Cinque Casi Classici a Confronto Gruppo B

1920-3-E2401P123T1GLB

Learning area

1: Knowledge and skills useful to understand, promote and change individual psychological functioning

Learning objectives

Knowledge and understanding

· Main contributions of the most influential psychoanalysts

· Technical implications of the authors

· In-depth study of the most influential clinical cases

Applying knowledge and understanding

· Develop the ability to understand the main theoretical models and their reciprocal connections

· Develop an understanding of how theory informs and guides clinical work

· Develop the ability to compare the different interpretations of clinical cases

·

Contents

Detailed program

Prerequisites

Teaching methods

Assessment methods

Textbooks and Reading Materials