

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Consumer Law

2021-5-A5810187

Learning objectives

The course aims to offer students an in-depth examination of the main principles and issues relating to consumer law, with the most recent news.

Contents

During the course we will analyse the main institutions regarding the figure of the consumer with their own guarantees.

Detailed program

The course will focus on the analysis of the fundamental characteristics of consumer law and the scope of application of the discipline to consumer and professional figures. We will analyze the rights of consumers and the protections reserved for them by our legal system.

A part will be devoted to the concept of transparency and information: information obligations and remedies for the violation of the rules on transparency. Unfair Business Practices.

We will proceed to the analysis of the formation of the contract with the consumer and consequential possible withdrawal, the unfair clauses, the guarantees in the sale of consumer goods.

The protection of the traveler.

Banking transparency and consumer credit. Notes on the protection of savers.

Prerequisites

In-depth knowledge of civil law

Teaching methods

Remote frontal lessons in synchronous or asynchronous mode.

Assessment methods

Oral test

Textbooks and Reading Materials

We suggest:

A. Barenghi, Diritto dei consumatori, Cedam, 2020, only chapters:.....
