

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Neuropsichiatria Infantile

2021-6-H4101D037-H4101D120M

Aims

By attending the Course in Child and Adolescent Neuropsychiatry the student should achieve: the skills asked to a physician to recognize the most common risk signs and symptoms for developmental disorders, behavioral and neuro psychiatric disorders, in childhood and adolescence

Contents

Neurodevelopmental disorders

Child Neurology

Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

Detailed program

Neurodevelopmental Disorders:

Intellectual Disability (Intellectual Developmental Disorder)

Autism Spectrum Disorder

Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder

Communication Disorders

Specific Learning Disorder

Motor Disorders: tics

Behavioral and Psychiatric Disorders:

Enuresis

Encopresis

Somatic Symptom and related disorders

Anxiety Disorders

Mood Disorders

Eating Disorders

Neurology

Seizures in childhood. Epilepsy.

Headaches

Movement Disorders: Ataxias, Chorea, Athetosis, Tremor, Dystonia

Encephalopathies: Cerebral Palsy

Muscular Dystrophies (Duchenne and Becker)

Neuropathies: Guillain -Barré syndrome

Prerequisites

Knowledges related to the preparatory courses according to the guidelines of the School of Medicine of Milano – Bicocca

Teaching form

Lectures, exercises and discussion of clinical cases

Textbook and teaching resource

Nelson Essentials of Pediatrics – 7th edition (english version) Autore/i:

Marcidante - Kliegman - Behrman – Nelson Editore: Elsevier – Saunders

Articles

Slides

Semester

1st semester

Assessment method

Written test: multiple choice questions (only 1 correct) and 1 “open question” followed by oral exam, after the successful revision of the written test

Office hours

on request by appointment to be agreed mailing to:

renata.nacinovich@unimib.it
