

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Oncologia Medica B

2021-6-H4101D335-H4101D222M

Aims

The lectures will focus on the treatment of the main solid tumors, in order to complete their knowledge in medical oncology.

Contents

Oncology key elements

interpersonal aspects of the approach to oncologic patients

Detailed program

During the VIth year these are the cancer diseases which will be discussed:

1. prostate cancer;
2. colorectal cancer;
3. breast cancer;
4. pancreatic cancer;
5. melanoma;
6. ovarian cancer;
7. discussion of the main solid tumors clinical cases

Prerequisites

Student must be knowledgeable about molecular and cellular biology, which are strictly connected to oncologic diseases.

Teaching form

Lectures will be performed asynchronously, while the discussion of clinical cases will be done synchronously.

Textbook and teaching resource

DeVita, Hellman, and Rosenberg's cancer : principles & practice of oncology ediz. 2018 ed in formato elettronico:

Linee guida AIOM 2019 per ogni patologia <https://www.aiom.it/linee-guida-aiom/>

Linee guida ESMO 2020 <http://interactiveguidelines.esmo.org/esmo-web-app/home/>

Semester

Sixth year, I semester

Assessment method

Written examination (multiple choice and open-end questions), oral examination with open questions and clinical cases within the exam of Medical Clinic at the end of the 6th year.

Office hours

Only by appointment

