

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Living Will and Patient-physician Relationship in The Context of End-of Life Wishes

2021-3-H4102D065

Aims

Acquiring a deep insight into the recently approved law on living will and its implications on patient-physician relationship: legal, ethical, theological and medical aspects.

Contents

Living will and patient-physician relationship in the context of end-of life wishes

Detailed program

- PBL session
- The new Law 219/2017 (GU n. 12 del 16.1.2018)
- Legal considerations
- The role of the public notary
- Theological aspects
- Medical implications (patient-physician relationship)

Prerequisites

From the 1st year of the course of Medicine and Surgery

Teaching form

Problem Based learning session and Seminar

Textbook and teaching resource

Lesson materials

SemesterAssessment method

Contribution to discussion

Office hours
