UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Meeting With Health Care Places in The History of Lombard Territory

2021-3-I0101D131

Aims

The course aims to make known through site visits places of care in the Lombardy territory.

These places are not at the time used for health care activities that is documented in the history. They can be reached by walking tours of short or medium length and put into an environmental and territorial context of particular relevance from the naturalistic point of view.

Contents

Lombardy territory and some place of health care in the history

Detailed program

There will be three visits to health care historical places in the Lombardy territory related to learning outcomes.

Prerequisites

2nd and 3rd year of course Student Nurses

Student of Master's Degree in Nursing and Obstetric Sciences

Teaching form

Consultation of specific texts. Site visits. Short lesson on specific topics related to sites identified.

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

Assessment method

Frequency

Office hours