UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Alcoholism and Alcohol-related Problems

2021-2-I0101D118

Aims

At the end of the course, the student will know the clinical, piscological / behavioral aspects, social repercussions and services available for the treatment and support of patients suffering from alcoholism.

Contents

Epidemiological data

Clinical and welfare aspects

Alcohol-related problems

Prevention and rehabilitation

testimonies of people involved

Detailed program

The course is divided into two sessions:

First session (morning)

Introduction and presentation of the phenomenon

Historical-epidemiological scenario

Clinical and welfare aspects

Psychological and behavioral aspects

Social Aspects

Discussion

Lunch Break

Second session (afternoon)

Experiences and testimonies from people and families

Discussion

Course Conclusion

Prerequisites

Teaching form

Lectures, group discussions, personal experiences presentation

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

2nd-3rd year

Assessment method

Office hours