

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Sociologia Urbana

2021-2-E4001N080

Learning objectives

To provide the students with the basic conceptual and analytical instruments for developing reflections on the city.

Contents

The course is oriented to deal with the following issues:

- birth and development of the urban sociology in Italy and in the world,
- the traditional and more recent research themes in urban sociology,
- quantitative and qualitative research methods in urban sociology.

Detailed program

First part: urban sociology

- The sociological analysis of the city
- The evolution of the urban phenomena
- Economy and urban society

- City conflicts and government
- Urban policies
- The city and the culture
- Urban space and environment
- Spatial sociology

Second part: urban research methods

- The ecological analysis and the survey
- The qualitative approach
- Flânerie as a strategy for urban explorations
- The analysis of “third places”

Prerequisites

Knowledge of the Italian language, critical analysis skills, knowledge of basic methodology.

Teaching methods

Classroom lessons, discussion with students concerning specific themes.

During the Covid-19 emergency period, lessons will take place in mixed mode: partial presence and asynchronous / synchronous videotaped lessons.

Assessment methods

Written and oral examination.

During the emergency period of Covid-19, exams will be only telematic.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Testo obbligatorio: Mela, A., "Sociologia delle città", Carocci, Roma, (2006);

e a scelta uno dei seguenti volumi:

Nuvolati, G., "L'interpretazione della città. Flânerie come esperienza di vita", Firenze University Press, Firenze (2013),

Nuvolati, G., "Un caffè tra amici. Un whiskey con lo sconosciuto", Moretti e Vitali, Bergamo (2016), Nuvolati, G., "Interstizi della città. Rifugi del vivere quotidiano", Moretti e Vitali, Bergamo (2019).

*INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS. A reading list in English will be provided upon request. An English exam will be allowed as well.
