

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Regional Law of Tourism

2021-2-F7601M060-F7601M020M

Learning objectives

The course aims to enhance the public issues of the regional tourism law with particular reference to the relationships between State and regions.

Contents

The course aims to provide knowledge related to the basic information about the public law of tourism. A particular attention will be given to the analysis of the regional law and to the relationships of competence between the different levels of government. Legislation and jurisprudence about tourism will also be examined.

Detailed program

- definition and types of tourism;

- _____

—
—
—
- italian regional system;

Prerequisites

Basic knowledge of public law

Teaching methods

At time of Covid 19 emergency the lessons will be held remotely and will be video recorded in asynchronous mode.

Slides and teaching materials will also be used (normative texts and judgments).

Assessment methods

Oral Test. During the course could be done assessment for attending students.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

- Attending students: materials provided in class.

- Non attending students: V. FRANCESCHELLI – F. MORANDI, Manuale di diritto del turismo, Giappichelli, Torino, ult. ed., Capp. 1, 2, 3, oltre a B. CARAVITA, F. FABRIZZI, A. STERPA, Lineamenti di diritto costituzionale delle regioni e degli enti locali, Giappichelli, Torino, 2019, Capp. I, II, III, IV.
