COURSE SYLLABUS

General Pedagogy I With Workshop - 1

2021-1-E1901R093-T1

---

Course title

Topics and course structure

"These days, educating who, what, how, where, when and why".

By enhancing the stimuli offered by Antonio Gramsci's reflection, the course aims to investigate the foundations of education in contemporary society, with particular attention to motivations, purposes, places, times, didactics, old and new critical issues that involve individual and collective subjects.

During the course, the pedagogical and educational implications of the Covid-19 pandemic will be explored.

The course includes a workshop "Analysis of motivations and expectations regarding the educational and professional choice" (16 hours 2 CFU).

The attendance at the workshop is compulsory both for attending and non-attending students.

It will take place during the first semester; calendar, timing and form will be communicated later on

Objectives

The educational intent consists of providing elements of knowledge through which stimulate abilities in carrying out a preliminary pedagogical analysis of educational experiences (professional and non-professional ones) in order to recognize their constituent elements, dynamics, involved subjects, social implications and criticisms.

Methodologies

In the Covid-19 emergency period, the workshops will be scheduled in attendance, while the lessons will be videotaped in asynchronous/synchronous. More details about didactical methods or any changes will be communicated.
