

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Economia delle Aziende Pubbliche

2021-3-E3301M146

Learning objectives

The course aims to provide the principles of business administration for the public sector. Knowledge of the strategic, planning and management processes of a public business. The aim of the course is to immerse the student in public dynamics by analyzing budgetary practices and policies.

Contents

The course focuses on the study of issues related to the business administration of the public sector, namely: governance and organization of a public business, strategic planning, management, programming, the administration and control system

Detailed program

1. classification of businesses
2. the concept of public business
- 3 Governance
4. Strategic planning
5. programming system
6. the Management

7. The budget

8 The financial system

9. The statement

Prerequisites

anyone

Teaching methods

Remote lessons in synchronous or asynchronous mode in the Conference Room:
<https://unimib.webex.com/meet/cinzia.vallone>

Assessment methods

Oral exam on the whole program

Textbooks and Reading Materials

1. Slides provided by the teacher during the course
2. Paola Orlandini – Principi di economia aziendale per il settore pubblico (Giappichelli Editore)

Semester

First semester

Teaching language

Italian Language
