

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Public Procurement

2021-1-FSG01A001-FSG01A002M

Learning objectives

Knowledge and understanding

The course aims to provide students with essential bases of knowledge of rules on public contracts and tender procedures.

Applying knowledge and understanding

The course aims to provide students with tools to develop approaches and methodologies for legal review of public contract law.

Contents

Subject of the course is the study of principles and regulation of the public markets with a particular focus on works and services public contracts and concessions.

Detailed program

- Development of public contracts legislation;
- sources of law on public contracts;
- UE Directives of 2014;
- public procurement contracts and concession, public-private partnerships;
- contracting subjects and economic operator;

- planning, programming and design of public contracts;
- tendering procedure;
- Judicial Remedies.

Prerequisites

Knowledge of administrative law

Teaching methods

Please note that during Covid-19 emergency period there will be some frontal class-room lessons, and some asynchronous videotaped lessons.

Assessment methods

Oral examination . During Covid-19 emergency oral examinations will be online.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Stefano Fantini – Hadrian Simonetti, Le basi del diritto dei contratti pubblici, Giuffrè, 2019 (not included chapter IV).
