UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Global Pediatric Medicine and Cooperation

2122-3-H4102D047

Aims

To provide an overview on medical problems and show initiatives and information about real experiences

Contents

To Illustrate programs related to the child health promotion in developing Countries

Detailed program

FIRST DAY

- 9.30- 10.00 Welcome and introduction (V. Conter, A. Biondi)

- 10.00- 10.45 Pediatric cancer as a global child health priority. Introduction to childhood cancer and strategies of cooperation in Low- and Middle-Income Countries (N. Peccatori)

- "Children Global Medicine". The projects of "Comitato Maria Letizia Verga" and University Milano-Bicocca:

- 10.45-11.45 "La Mascota" Project and AHOPCA. A model for sustainable development in pediatric oncology for Central America (V. Conter)

- 11.45-12.30 Clinical training experiences. From Central and South America to Italy (Fellows UNOP)

- 12.30-13.30 Lunch break

- 13.30-15.00 The start-up of two “Bone Marrow Transplantation programs”: Kurdistan (HIWA Cancer Hospital) and Paraguay (Hospital Niños de Acosta Nu) (M. Verna, A. Rovelli)

- 15.00-15.45 The role of nursing in pediatric oncology cooperation programs (M. Canesi)

-15.45-16.00 Coffee break

- 16.00-16.45 A pediatric resident in Tanzania: a cooperation experience (F. Peia)

- 16.45-17.30 A pediatrician on board: rescue in the Mediterranean Sea (M. Melzi)

group discussion the following week

Prerequisites

none

Teaching form

Lecture room presentation

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

second term

Assessment method

attendance

Office hours

by email: andrea.biondi@unimib.it