UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Tirocinio Professionalizzante Area Medica 1d

2122-3-H4101D259-H4101D142M

Aims

The aim of the training course in Clinical Area 1 is to offer the student the possibility to learn, at patient's bedside, how to professionally interact with them, how to correctly collect the patient's medical history data and how to properly perform a physical examination. This training period aims at guiding the students through the different phases of the diagnostic/therapeutic process in the different areas of internal medicine. The training program is performed with the help of tutor, who will guide the students through the steps of this process.

Contents

Skills in the specialist field, peculiarities of the visit and the diagnostic and therapeutic approach for patients with gastroenterological problems.

Detailed program

To carry out a medical investigation, to make a critical argument as regards the laboratory tests, to apply the dialogue skills with the patients while taking a medical hystory, to learn how to estabilish a good relationship with the patient, to learn how to perform an accurate physical examination, to learn how to comply with criteria of professional deontology.

Prerequisites

Knowledge of the introductory courses indicated in the degree course regulation

Teaching form

Internship. The student will attend the Gastroenterology departments and clinics subject to any ministerial changes following the COVID pandemic situation

Textbook and teaching resource

The teaching resourse consists of everything concerning the clinical cases observed during the internship

Semester

Third year, I and II semester

Assessment method

Assessment through direct interaction with the tutors during the attendance of the ward

Office hours

On appointment