UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Pediatrics

2122-6-H4101D037

Aims

The Pediatrics course consists of two modules: general pediatrics and neurospychiatry). As a whole, the objective of the course is to make the student acquire: the skills necessary for the non-specialist doctor to deal with the most common pediatric problems in clinical practice in the preventive, diagnostic and therapeutic fields, as well as the acquisition of skills to recognize the most common risk signs and symptoms of developmental, behavioral and neuropsychiatric disorders in childhood and adolescence.

Contents

General framework and management of the healthy child and in the presence of the main pathologies characteristic of childhood. Neurodevelopmental disorders

Detailed program

Refer to the specific modules

Prerequisites

Enrollment in the 6th year of course

Knowledge related to the preparatory courses according to the guidelines of the School of Medicine of Milano – Bicocca

Teaching form

Lectures:

IN THE CLASROOM

Exercises:

IN THE CLASROOM with active involvement of students, divided into groups, on clinical cases according to the PROBLEM BASED LEARNING based on the topics included in the programme, using videoconferences systems.

Lessons in attendance, subject to any ministerial changes following the COVID pandemic situation

Textbook and teaching resource

Refer to the specific modules

Semester

1st semester of 6th year of course

Assessment method

Written test: 19 multiple choice questions (only 1 correct) and 1 “open question” followed by oral exam, after the successful revision of the written test

subject to any ministerial changes following the COVID pandemic situation"

Office hours

By appointment