

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Dipendenze Patologiche Da Sostanze e Non

2122-4-H4101D296

Aims

Know the role and organisation of addiction treatment services in Monza area. Understand the clinical, epidemiological and social implications of addiction

Contents

Neurobiology of addiction. Epidemiology of addiction. Social consequences of addiction. Prevention and treatment.

Detailed program

Addiction: neurobiology, definitions and clinical presentation, epidemiology, diagnosis, treatment options (including 12-steps programs).

Medical, social and relational complications of addiction.

Prevention strategies.

Prerequisites

4th year Medical Student and over.

2nd year Students in Nursing, Midwifery, Biomedical Laboratory Techniques, Students in Nursing and Midwifery Sciences

Teaching form

Frontal lessons, video presentations; debate with patient association members

Lessons will be provided in presence, subject to any ministerial changes following the COVID pandemic situation

Textbook and teaching resource

Papers distributed during the course

Semester

Second Semester, May

Assessment method

Interactive verification at the course conclusion

Office hours

By appointment, arranged by e-mail
