UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Clerkship in Urgent Care/emergency H Niguarda

2122-4-H4101D250

Aims

Address the fundamentals, pathophysiological mechanisms, clinical pictures, monitoring and treatment of the main urgent pathologies with specific reference to internal and cardiological ones.

Contents

Evaluation of the patient's general conditions and dealing with the main pathologies in emergency urgency of a cardiological and internal nature, supporting the doctor in the emergency room

Detailed program

Facing and evaluating the emergent emergency patient suffering from cardiological internal pathology, and in particular from chest pain, pulmonary embolism, aortic dissection, severe arterial hypertension in emergency urgency; objective examination, anamnestic collection, definition of the diagnostic path and setting of the therapy. Learn to participate in the activities of a work group in an urgent environment.

Prerequisites

Being in progress with previous exams

Teaching form

Internship subject to any ministerial changes following the COVID pandemic situation

Textbook and teaching resource

Emergenze Medico Chirurgiche G. Tiberio et al. ed. MASSON
Slides of the course

Semester

12 months in period to be agreed

Assessment method

Attendance

Office hours

On demand after contacting e-mail