

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Law of Successions

2122-5-A5810186

Learning objectives

The course aims to provide the student with the knowledge of the main institutes of inheritance law, with a practical theoretical approach and analysis of practical cases and jurisprudential decisions on the issues of greatest interest.

Contents

The course has as its object the study of the general principles of succession law, of the testamentary succession, legitimate and necessary, communion and division.

Detailed program

Principles of inheritance law: concept and object; succession by law and by will, universally and in particular; anomalous sequences; succession agreements.

Succession procedure: opening and pending inheritance; vocation of delation and purchase; ability to succeed and unworthiness; subsequent delation

Acquisition and loss of the inheritance: acceptance of the inheritance; renounce the inheritance; petition of inheritance and apparent heir; the sale of inheritance

Testamentary succession: will; forms of the will; publication of the will and European certificate of succession; testamentary will and accidental elements; lapse and revocation of the will; executor; related

Legitimate succession: concept and foundation; operating rules; the cd. legally bound

Legitimate succession: the categories of entitlements; principle of intangibility of legitimacy; tied in substitution and on account; reduction action; family pact

Hereditary communion: procedure; "collazione"

Prerequisites

it is necessary to have taken and passed the examination of Institutions of Private Law

Teaching methods

Il corso si articola in lezioni frontali. La frequenza è fortemente consigliata.

Assessment methods

oral examination

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Manuale di diritto delle Successioni, in course of publication. In the meantime, P. Perlingieri, Manuale di Diritto civile, X ed., 2021, parte VIII.
