UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Private Law Mod A - A-L

2122-1-A5810019-A581001901-AL

Learning objectives

The course aims to provide students with the knowledge of the main institutions of private law, with both a theoretical and practical-applicative approach and attention to the evolutionary aspects of the law. The study will also make use of practical jurisprudential cases that will be addressed in the classroom with a dialogic method.

Contents

The course focuses on the study of the main institutions of private law and their discipline.

Detailed program

Rules, principles, sources of law.

Interpretation.

Subjective situations and legal relationship.

Fact and effect.

Individuals.

Legal entities.

Bonds.

General regulation of contracts.

Contracts.

Civil liability

Prescription and forfeiture.

Jurisdictional protection of rights.

Prerequisites

Teaching methods

Lectures and support through the e-learning platform.

Assessment methods

Oral exam

Textbooks and Reading Materials

G. Iorio, Corso di diritto privato, ed . Giappichelli, latest edition available

P. Perlingieri, Manuale di diritto civile, Napoli, Esi, latest edition available