UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Differential Diagnosis in Rehabilitation

2122-2-I0201D047

Aims

Knowing the basic concepts of differential diagnosis in rehabilitation.

Contents

One session of 7 hours, concept of DIFFERENTIAL DIAGNOSIS IN REHABILITATION will be presented.

Detailed program

Main aspects of “functional differential diagnosis” in rehabilitation.

- Symptoms and their sources

- Differentiate between symptoms that come from functional problems and symptoms from other diseases

- Knowing the symptoms that require medical attention.

Prerequisites

Teaching form

Lessons and lab in attendance, subject to any changes following the pandemic.

Textbook and teaching resource

Diagnosi Differenziale in Fisioterapia Autori: Catherine Cavallaro Goodman, Teresa E. Kelly Snyder.

Semester

Assessment method

Attendance

Office hours