UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Nursing in The Mental Health The Reality of High-assistance Community (CPA)

2122-3-I0101D907

Aims

• Know the territorial network for mental health care

• Know the type of users that you are referring to and the main nursing assistance ne eds

• Understand the role of the nurse within the territorial mental health network

• Know the main legislation in vogue that regulates the mental health network

• Understanding possible strategies for dealing with some "common" problems through t he treatment of clinical cases

Contents

The network of mental health services and types of assistance

• Current legislation in the field of mental health

• History of how the onset and treatment of psychiatric pathology has evolved

• Type of users, overview of psychopathology and prevalent nursing assistance needs

• Professional figures working in the field of mental health

• Development of clinical cases with open discussion and role playing

Detailed program

9.00- 10.30

The network of mental health services and types of assistance

10.30-11.00

Current legislation in the field of mental health

11.00-11.15

Coffee break

11.15-13.00

• History of how the onset and treatment of psychiatric pathology has evolved

• Type of user, overview of psychopathology

• Professional figures working in the field of mental health

13.00-14.00

Lunch break

14.15-15.15

Role of the nurse and the prevailing nursing assistance needs

15.15-17.00

Development of clinical cases with open discussion and roleplaying

17.00 - 18.00

Discussion and closing remarks

Prerequisites

3rd year student

Teaching form

Frontal lesson and role playing with treatment of a clinical case

Textbook and teaching resource

Teachers materials

Semester

second semester

Assessment method

Office hours