Prerequisites

No specific entry level required. Students will be divided into two groups: group A for absolute beginners (Tedesco 1A) and group B for students who have been studying German for at least one year (Tedesco IB).

Teaching methods

- Teaching languages: German and italian
- Lessons (corso monografico) and language tutorials.

During periods of health emergency, the course will be delivered completely online by the means of video-lessons and tutorials in streaming and by some previously recorded materials, according to current guidelines issued at that moment.

Assessment methods

Written and oral exam with grade evaluation

Written exam

- grammar test with closed questions
- some open questions (translation of short idiomatic expressions from Italian into German and short answers to simple questions)

Oral exam

- conversation on daily matters
- presentation, comment and discussion on one text prepared by the student
- reading and translation of one of the texts analyzed in the Corso monografico (text chosen by the teacher)

Note

1. Passing the written test is mandatory for taking the oral exam. It is not allowed to take the written and oral exam in two different assessment dates.
2. Use materials of 2020/2021 until April 2022 included.

During periods of health emergency, all tests will be organized completely online. The written test will be carried out on a specific platform, whereas the oral test will be organized as a video-conference using WebEx; the e-learning page of the course will provide a public link which allows for participation of virtual audience.
