UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Diritto Amministrativo e delle Autonomie II

2122-3-E3301M210-E3301M215M

Learning objectives

The course is aimed at the acquisition of a good knowledge of territorial autonomy in the Italian legal system.

In particular, the course aims to analyze the functionality of the regional, provincial and municipal organization and the set of relations involving the different levels of government.

Contents

The course will explain the evolution of autonomistic ideas in Italy from unification to the present days, and then focus on the organization of Regions, Provinces and Municipalities.

The difference between Regions with special statute and ordinary statute and the political, regulatory, administrative and financial autonomy of the different levels of government will be analyzed.

A further aspect will then concern the relations between the State, Regions and local authorities

Detailed program

- The autonomy in the Regno d'Italia

- The principle of autonomy in the Republican Constitution and its path to implementation

- Special Statute Regions

- The Regions with ordinary statute in the old Title V

- The Regions with ordinary statute in the new Title V

- The form of government and political autonomy

- Statutory autonomy

- Legislative autonomy

- Administrative autonomy

- Financial autonomy

- Relations between State and Regions

- The CAL and the relations between Regions and local authorities

- Differentiated regionalism

- Provinces and Metropolitan Cities

- The functions of the Provinces and metropolitan cities

- Municipalities: political organization and role in the realization of the welfare state

- The Functions of the Municipalities

Prerequisites

General knowledge of the organization of the Italian legal system

Teaching methods

Depending on the progress of the Covid-19 emergency, classes may be in-person or video lectures in synchronous mode

Assessment methods

The exams will be oral examinations. According to the guidelines that the University may eventually provide in relation to the evolution of the health emergency, the examination could be by remote via Webex.

Written tests may be provided for students following the lessons routinely.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

R. Bin - G. Falcon, Diritto regionale, Il Mulino, also available as e-book

Semester

First semester

Teaching language

Italian