UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Constitutional Law - M-Z

2122-1-E1401A005-MZ

Learning objectives

The course provides students with a critical understanding of the Italian Constitutional Law and leads them to a complete knowledge of the text of the Italian Constitution.

Contents

The course covers the whole of the Italian Constitutional Law (fundamental rights and duties and public powers' organization).

Detailed program

Introduction. The Law and the State. The Constitution and its fundamental principles. Forms of State and Forms of Government. Brief Italian constitutional history. International Law and European Union. The Sources of the Legal System. The fundamentals rights and duties. The constitutional organization: the electoral body, the Parliament, the Government, the President of the Republic, Regional and Local Government, the Judiciary, the Constitutional Court

Prerequisites

None.

Teaching methods

Lectures. Case studies.

Assessment methods

Written pre-selection and than oral exam (on the same day).

Attending students can take an optional intermediate written examination.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

It is requested the direct knowledge of the Italian Constitution and of its fundamental implementation laws and the study of the following textbook: R. Bifulco, Diritto costituzionale, Giappichelli, Torino, 2020