UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Public Procurement

2122-1-FSG01A001-FSG01A002M

Learning objectives

Knowledge and understanding
The course aims to provide students with essential bases of knowledge of rules on public contracts and tender procedures.

Applying knowledge and understanding

The course aims to provide students with tools to develop approaches and methodologies for legal review of public contract law.

Contents

Subject of the course is the study of principles and regulation of the public markets with a particular focus on works and services public contracts and concessions.

Detailed program

- Development of public contracts legislation;

- sources of law on pubblic contracts;

- UE Directives of 2014;

- public procurement contracts and concession, public-private partnerships;
- contacting subjects and economic operator;

- planning, programmingand design of public contracts;
- tendering procedure;
- Judicial Remedies.

Prerequisites

Knowledge of administrative law

Teaching methods

Frontal class-room lessons.

Assessment methods

Oral examination.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Ruggiero Dipace, Manuale dei contratti pubblici, Giappichelli, 2021 (not included chapter 9; non included chapter 10)

Stefano Fantini – Hadrian Simonetti, Le basi del diritto dei contratti pubblici, Giuffrè, 2019 (not included chapter IV).