COURSE SYLLABUS

French Culture

2122-2-F7601M056-F7601M049M

Learning objectives

The course will consider multi-and intercultural aspects of the language, society, culture and economy in France. The student will know how to interact orally on economic topics, using an appropriate vocabulary and linguistic register.

Contents

The awareness of a national "exception" has allowed France to pursue a policy of exemptions in the cultural field, when signing international trade agreements. The course aims to introduce students to some main features of French culture in the framework of European multiculturalism and globalization.
