UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Introduction To Public Law - 2

2122-1-E1802M005-T2

Learning objectives

The course aims at building a basic knowledge of the legal orders: the national legal order, the organization of the institutions of the local government, and the European legal order.

In particular, the course is concerned with the organization and activity of the Italian Government and other public institutions, especially the European Union. The course also provides a juridical and political framework of relations between authorities and rights with particular reference to individuals and social groups' rights.

The aim is also to introduce the study of the legal sources and the mechanisms of their production. The course then focuses on constitutional changes.

Contents

This course is concerned with the organization and activity of the Italian Government and other public institutions. The course also provides a juridical and political framework of relations between authorities and rights with particular reference to individuals and social groups' rights. The course then focuses on constitutional transformations.

Detailed program

- The basics of general public law: the legal system States and governments.
- Sources of public law.
- Outline of Italian constitutional history.
- Constitutional organization of the Italian Republic.
- Regions and local governments.
- Rights and duties of the citizens International relationships of the Italian Republic.
- Public economics law: regulation of the market and public intervention in the economy.

Prerequisites

Knowledge of the legal sources of public law and the general organization of the Italian and European legal order.

Teaching methods

Frontal lessons.

Assessment methods

Oral examination. A mid-term review can be organized.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

P. Caretti – U. De Siervo, Diritto costituzionale e pubblico, Giappichelli Editore, ultima edizione also available as e-book in the website

https://www.giappichelli.it/

Further readings could be suggested during the course.