

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Ostetrica di Comunità

2122-2-I0102D011-I0102D033M

Aims

The student will know the role of the community midwife and her educational role on the prevention and promotion on the female health.

Contents

The course provides the student the knowledge of the community midwife role and her educational role on the health gender promotion and family planning.

Detailed program

The students will be able to plan and to provide an evidence based educational and rehabilitation program to the woman in accordance with the Midwifery Partnership Model, the Midwifery Management, the international Classification Functions and evaluation scales. The concept of community and the role of community midwife. The population screenings (PAP test, HPV test, breast self-examination). The cultural determinants of gender health and the promotion of healthy lifestyles. The midwifery counseling in the family planning program. The role and the midwifery skills in reducing the adverse reproductive outcome (EAR), in the parenthood educational programs, and emotional, reproductive and sexual health programs. The midwifery counseling during menopause. Organisational models of the community health services.

Prerequisites

None

Teaching form

Lectures, practice exercises and group work

Textbook and teaching resource

Edwins Jenny, "Community Midwifery Practice", Blackwell Publishing, 2008.

Semester

II semester

Assessment method

Written exam with multiple choice test with only one correct answer and questions with brief answers

Office hours

On appointment
