UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Criminal Procedure

2223-3-A5810231

Learning objectives

The object of this class is the study of the criminal trial, as regulated by constitutional principles, international human rights law and by the criminal procedure code.

Attention will be held to the application of these rules also in the case law, in order to provide an overview of law in action, useful in particular for a future professional skills development. For this reason, the course is enriched with the study of records from a real criminal trial.

Unit B focuses on the principles of the criminal procedure.

Contents

Unit A: 9 CFU - 72 hours

General principles, first degree trial, special proceedings, appeals.

Unit B: 6 CFU - 48 hours

the crisis of the principles of the criminal process in the contemporary

Detailed program

Prerequisites

Teaching methods

Assessment methods

Oral exam.

Other indications and advices about examinations and program will be given during the course.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

AA. VV., Procedura penale, Giappichelli, Torino, edizione 2022/2023, except the chapters concerning il procedimento dinanzi al giudice di pace, il procedimento minorile, l'esecuzione, i rapporti internazionali, il procedimento di prevenzione.

O. MAZZA, Tradimenti di un codice. La Procedura penale a trent'anni dalla grande riforma, Giappichelli, Torino, 2020.

Codice di procedura penale, 2022/2023.

Sustainable Development Goals

PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS