Prerequisites

No specific entry level required.
Unlike the other languages, German Language no longer offers tutorials with a language learning assistant. For this reason, it is strongly recommended (especially for beginning students) to also attend the German Language courses of the Bachelor degree programs Economia e Commercio and Economia delle banche.

Teaching methods

Lectures.

Assessment methods

Written and oral exam with grade evaluation

Written exam

- test with closed questions: listening comprehension; reading comprehension; completing a text with missing words
- an open question (writing a written text in German, for example, an e-mail or a text using an instant messaging service)

Oral exam

- conversation on daily matters
- presentation, comment and discussion on one text prepared by the student
- reading and translation of one of the texts analyzed during the course (text chosen by the teacher)

Note

1. Passing the written test is mandatory for taking the oral exam. It is not allowed to take the written and oral exam in two different assessment dates.
2. Use materials of 2021/2022 until April 2023 included.

During periods of health emergency, all tests will be organized completely online. The written test will be carried out on a specific platform, whereas the oral test will be organized as a video-conference using WebEx; the e-learning page of the course will provide a public link which allows for participation of virtual audience.
