UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Obstetrics

2223-3-I0202D113-I0202D055M

Aims

The primary aim of this course is to allow the students to acquire general notions regarding the woman's reproductive cycle and pregnancy, from conception to the postpartum period.

Contents

Common gynecological diseases; low- and high-risk pregnancy, childbirth, postpartum, and puerperium. Effects of pregnancy-related conditions on long-term woman's health.

Detailed program

§ Female genital tract and reproductive cycle
§ Common gynecological diseases
§ Low- and high-risk pregnancies
§ Antenatal care in and management of low- and high-risk pregnancies
§ Normal and abnormal childbirth process
§ Common obstetric diseases
§ Postpartum – Puerperium

Prerequisites

Teaching form

Frontal lectures
problem based learning

Textbook and teaching resource

1. Ferrari, L. G. Frigerio, Core Curriculum - Ostetricia e Ginecologia, McGraw-Hill
2. Valle A, Bottino S, Meregalli V, Zanini A, Lissoni D, Locatelli A. Manuale di Sala Parto. Edi Ermes 2019 ISBN 9788870516753
3. Bolis G. Manuale di Ginecologia ed Ostetricia, EdiSES Edizione II / 2017 ISBN: 9788879599269

Semester

First semester

Assessment method

Oral interviews

Office hours

By appointment (email)

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING