

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

The Organ Donation Process: The Care of a Potential Organ Donation Patient

2223-2-I0101D109

---

Aims

to describe the services currently offered by health and social welfare system and the legislation on organ transplants to identify the phases of the donation process from the brain injury to the possibility of donation (exclusion criteria for organ donation)

to include the areas of intervention of the health professionals to define ethical aspects related to the whole process

Contents

Framework of the organ donation process and the donor's general medical criteria

The assessment of death with neurological criteria and the maintenance of the potential donor

Chronic kidney disease and transplant

The relationship of help to family members

The experience of the healthcare professional in the donation process

Detailed program

- Organ and tissue donation: find out more ...

- Chronic kidney disease and transplant
- Personal experience of a person waiting for a transplant
- The assessment of death with neurological criteria and the maintenance of the potential donor: Nursing assistance, skills and ethics
- The relationship of help to family members: the ethical and deontological aspects connected to the whole process
- Personal experience of a post transplant person
- The experience of the healthcare professional in the donation process
- "Donation Process" scenario

Prerequisites

2?? 3?? year Nursing Students

Teaching form

Lectures

Guided discussion

Case studies

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

Second semester

Assessment method

frequency

Office hours

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING | QUALITY EDUCATION

