UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Clerkship in Vascular Surgery

2324-3-H4101D101

Aims

The purpose of the internship is to familiarize the student with the activities in the department of Vascular Surgery

Contents

The elective internship consists of an activity carried out at the Vascular Surgery Department, or at outpatient facilities in the vascular surgical field in which the student will work alongside the vascular surgeon during his working day

Detailed program

Visits for arterial and venous pathologies

Vascular Doppler ultrasound supraaortic trunks, aorta, arterial and venous lower limbs

Post-operative evaluation of the operated patient for vascular pathology

Participation in vascular and endovascular surgery on the arterial and venous district

Prerequisites

The student must be enrolled in the third year of the Master course in Medicine and Surgery

Teaching form

Attendance in the Ward, in the Visits Outpatient Clinic, in the Ecodoppler Outpatient Clinic and in the Operating Room

Textbook and teaching resource

The didactic material consists of everything concerning the clinical cases observed in the attendance period

Semester

To be agreed with the reference professor

Assessment method

Assessment of learning is based on reaching the expected number of hours. Credits will be recognized at the end of attendance

Office hours

By appointment, arranged by e-mail

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING