UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Clerkship in Pediatric Ambulatory Medicine

2324-6-H4101D199

Aims

Side by side with the family pediatrician (1: 1) in the daily work of taking care of the little patient according to principles based on scientific evidence and on the definition of priorities

Contents

anamnesis, pediatric physical examination, approach to the setting

Detailed program

- OBSERVATION of the ongoing relationship with the child and his family: listening, promoting the therapeutic alliance and empowering parents.
- KNOWLEDGE OF THE INDICATIONS relating to prevention, diagnosis, behavioral advice, treatment prescriptions
  -ACQUISITION of the need / ability to inform and make the patient aware of his or her history of illness and treatment
  KNOWLEDGE of the methods of relationship and contact with the forms of assistance present in the sorroundig area

Prerequisites

enrollment in 6th year of course

Teaching form

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN ALL PHASES OF THE VISIT in a 1: 1 ratio with the family pediatrician in his/her clinic according to scheduled availability

Textbook and teaching resource

Any reading and study resources suggested or available

Semester

second

Assessment method

Certificate of attendance

Office hours

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING