UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Criminal Law (crimes Against Public Administration and Administration of Justice)

2324-5-A5810196

Learning objectives

The teaching provides the necessary skills for the drafting, presentation and oral discussion of legal opinions, both individually and as a group activity.
It also aims to provide in-depth knowledge of the main offences against property, against public administration and against the administration of justice.

Contents

- Crimes against property
- Crimes against the public administration
- Crimes against the administration of justice

Detailed program

1. Introduction to the Special Part
2. Relationship between the General and Special Part of the Criminal Code
3. Interpretation of the Criminal Law
4. Crimes against property
   * General part and individual offences
   * Crimes of unilateral aggression
   * Crimes of aggression also against the person
   * Crimes with the collaboration of the victim

    * Crimes against the illicit circulation of goods
5. Crimes against the public administration
    * General part and single offences
    * Crimes of embezzlement
    * Crimes against public financing
    * Crimes of unlawful transactions
    * Offences of violation of functional duties
6. Crimes against the administration of justice
    * General part and individual offences
    * Crimes against the administration of justice
    * Crimes of arbitrary protection of private reasons

Prerequisites

Participation in the exam of 'Criminal Law. Special Part' requires the passing of the exam of 'Criminal Law' (Academic Regulations a.y. 2022-2023).

Teaching methods

Analysis of the main offences in the light of scientific literature and case law, study and collective discussion of practical cases.
Classroom teaching is characterised by a lab-based method, engaging students in the drafting, presentation and discussion of legal advice.

Assessment methods

Written test, consisting of the writing of a legal opinion.*
In particular, the following will be assessed: the ability to refer to the arguments in a manner appropriate to the specificities of the subject and according to correct logical-systematic canons, the ability to link the various criminal law institutions, exegetical correctness, argumentative skills, technical-expressive skills, abstract and practical reasoning skills, and the ability to work in a team.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Study of the following textbooks is recommended:

- R. Bartoli, M. Pelissero, S. Seminara, Diritto penale. Lineamenti di parte speciale, G. Giappichelli Editore, Turin, last edition, only the following parts: Part Two - I delitti contro il patrimonio (with the exception of ch. 5 - I delitti informatici contro il patrimonio); Part Three - I delitti contro la pubblica amministrazione (with the exception of ch. 7 - I delitti dei privati); Part Four - I delitti contro l'amministrazione della giustizia (with the exception of ch. 2 - I delitti contro l'autorità delle decisioni giudiziarie).

- M. Miedico, T. Trinchera, F. Viganò, Studiare sui casi. Materiali integrativi per il corso di diritto penale – Parte generale, Giappichelli Editore, Torino, ultima edizione.

Direct consultation of the updated edition of the Criminal Code is indispensable.

Sustainable Development Goals

PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS