Prerequisites

Private Law Institutions and Constitutional Law, as well as Knowledge of a Foreign Language are prerequisites for the teaching of Criminal Law (Academic Regulations - Academic Year 2022-2023).

Teaching methods

Description of rules and principles and their ratio; case by law approach, aiming to verify comprehension and problem solving capacities.

Assessment methods

Partial written exam (optional) for the mid-term and final check of preparation. The exam covers the topics discussed in the lectures and those left to the student's self-study. The detailed list of the exam topics will be communicated during the year. Each test consists of multiple-choice questions. The student, who wishes to make use of this examination mode, must take both partial exams.

Final oral exam (compulsory) to check preparation on the exam programme as well as communication and self-reflection skills.

The following in particular will be assessed: the ability to relate the arguments in a manner appropriate to the specificities of the subject and according to correct logical-systematic canons, the ability to link the various criminal law institutions, exegetical correctness, argumentative skills, technical-expressive ability.

Students, who have passed both partial exams, will be questioned on the topics that were not covered in the written tests. The final grade is the arithmetic average of the grades in the two written tests and the oral test.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

Students prepare the exam on one of the following textbooks:

- PULITANO', Diritto penale, Giappichelli, Torino, last edition
- MARINUCCI-DOLCINI-GATTA, Manuale di diritto penale. Parte Generale, Giuffr , Milano, last edition
- BARTOLI, Diritto penale. Elementi di parte generale, Giappichelli, Torino, last edition as well as on the in-depth teaching materials, which will be uploaded to the teaching e-learning platform.

Direct consultation of the updated edition of the Criminal Code is indispensable.
