

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Istituzioni di Diritto Pubblico

2324-1-E4001N050

Learning objectives

The course provides students with basics concepts of the Public Law and leads them to a complete knowledge of the Italian constitutional system.

The course also aims to provide students with essential principles of Labour Law.

Contents

The constitutional law part deals with the organization of public powers and the protection of fundamental rights, seen also in the perspective of European integration.

The part of labour law takes into account the rules of the employment contract.

Detailed program

Constitutional law: 1. Introduction. The State as a legal system and its forms. 2. The Italian Constitution: birth, implementation, revision. 3. The system of the sources of law. 4. The international and European dimension of the sources of law. 5. The exercise of popular sovereignty: representative and direct democracy. 6. The forms of government. 7. The constitutional organisation: Government, President of the Republic, Parliament, Constitutional Court, Judiciary. 8. Rights of freedom: individual (personal, of domicile, of movement, of expression, of religion) and collective (assembly and association). 10. The Economic Constitution.

Labour Law: 1. Subordinate and autonomous works. 2. Employees' duties. 3. Employer's powers. 4. Working time. 5. The wage. 6. Dismissal and redundancies. 7. Atypical work. 8. Non-discrimination legislation.

Prerequisites

Knowledge of the Italian language.

Teaching methods

Lectures

Assessment methods

Two compulsory written tests (one for each of the two parts) consisting of open questions; optional oral (for those who have achieved a pass in the written part).

Textbooks and Reading Materials

For Constitutional Law it is requested the direct knowledge of Italian Constitution and the study of the following textbook: Camerlengo Q. - Furlan F., Lezioni di diritto costituzionale vivente, II ed. WoltersKluwers, Padova, 2023; Chapters IX and XIII are not to be studied cause not in the program.

For Labour Law it is requested the study of the textbook: Mariella Magnani, Diritto del lavoro, Giappichelli, last edition; Chapters XII (Protections in the labor market), XIII (Non-entrepreneurial employers), as well as the second section of Chap. VIII on company-dependent suspensions are not compulsory. It is requested to study non-discrimination legislation using the file uploaded on the e-learning webpage.

Sustainable Development Goals

DECENT WORK AND ECONOMIC GROWTH | PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS
